truly unique in every respect: If you are looking for a beautiful romantic story, it is in it, the love story of Khadija and Muhammed. If you wish to open a window on the life of the few years that preceded the inception of the Prophetic Mission, this is your book. If you are a history fan, as is the case with its author, this book is full of history. Actually, this is not one but two books combined together: One deals with Khadija, the first wife of the Prophet of Islam (P), and the other deals with another wife, Aisha. The first has not received the exposure, the publicity, the research she deserves, while the other is quite famous. The author has discussed in this book both women so the reader may get the opportunity to compare one with the other. This is an attempt to give Khadija the attention and regard she rightfully deserves.

Very little has been written about Lady Khadija daughter of Khuwaylid, the first wife of Prophet Muhammed; therefore, the author thinks that a book like this is needed not only by the Islamic library, but by the cultural library of the world. Khadija's impact on the lives of people went far beyond her time and will always continue. This tri-lingual book contains a beautiful love story. A woman falls in love, so she composes romantic poems expressing her feelings, defying the male chauvinism of the time. If you enjoy romance, read this book. If you enjoy history, this is your book, and if you prefer biography, this is surely a biography book that takes you back to the time when the Prophet of Islam was 25 years old, that is, to A.D. 570, and its events take place in the trade metropolis of Mecca, Hijaz, describing the ways of life there and then, narrating the details of the Prophet's first and happiest marriage. It even describes to you wedding traditions at the time many of which are still alive. Another woman is discussed in this book, the most famous of the Prophet's wives, namely Aisha daughter of Abu Bakr. You will read how she led an army spurred by hatred and blind ambition in order to win the crown for her loved nephew, Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr, a relative of her husband, the Prophet of Islam. That was the Battle of the Camel of A.D. 656. It was then that Muslims killed Muslims, a shame that continues and apparently will always continue fueled by blind prejudices, intolerance and close-mindedness. This book is the story of two women: of one who loved and another who hated
