Practice in the Life of Sayyid Jalal al-din Bukhari Makhdum-I Jahaniyan (Studies in Comparative Religion):

In Knowledge before Action, Amina M. Steinfels examines medieval Sufism and its place in Islamic society by telling the story of the life and career of Sayyid Jalāl al-dīn Bukhārī, a revered figure in Pakistan. Considered one of the most important Sufi masters of South Asia, Sayyid Jalāl al-dīn Bukhārī, more popularly referred to as Makhdūm-i Jahāniyān, is known for combining spirituality and scholarship in a formative period for Sufism. Steinfels assembles the details of Bukhārī's life from records of his teachings, dynastic chronicles, and correspondence to discover how he achieved his status and laid the groundwork for a devotional cult that has lasted seven centuries. Steinfels also examines Bukhārī's theories of the relationship between scholar and mystic. Bukhārī's teachings provide windows into the underlying concerns and themes of medieval Sufism. Knowledge before Action describes Bukhārī's training as a scholar and a Sufi, his exercise of religious authority over his disciples, and his theories of the relationships between saint and shaykh. Knowledge before Action discusses ritual and contemplative practices, the economic bases of Sufi institutions, and the interconnectedness between Sufi masters, the 'ulama, and the political authorities by telling the story of Bukhārī.

"Distinguished by its meticulous attention to primary sources, the book is among the most comprehensive, insightful, and thoroughly original resources on pre-modern Sufism in South Asia." ---Robert Rozehnal, Religion From the Inside Flap
A study of a revered figure's teachings to better understand Islam and Sufism
