Gross Grenville : Leo Baeck Institute Yearbook 2002 [XLVII] before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Leo Baeck Institute Yearbook 2002 [XLVII]:

The Leo Baeck Institute, which has offices in London, New York, and Jerusalem, has a long and distinguished history. It was founded in 1955 for the study of the history and culture of German-speaking Central European Jewry and named in honour of the man who was the last representative figure of German Jewry in Germany during the Nazi period. The Year Book was established the following year and has since then gained a world-wide reputation for the consistently high quality of its volumes.

About the Author J.A.S. Grenville is Emeritus Professor of Modern History at the University of Birmingham. He is also the author of A History of the World in the Twentieth Century (Harvard, 2000).
