Yasin T. al-Jibouri, Yasin Publications : Master of Martyrs: Imam al-Hussain ibn Ali ibn Abu Talib before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Master of Martyrs: Imam al-Hussain ibn Ali ibn Abu Talib:

Yasin T. al-Jibouri has been writing, translating and publishing Islamic literature since January of 1974 when he started in Atlanta, Georgia, the publication of Islamic Affairs bimonthly newsletter. So far, he has written, edited and translated a total of 68 titles, and you can get their list in PDF format if you send an email requesting it to: Yasin Publications at this address: info@yasinpublications.org. Al-Jibouri is well known for his two-volume book Allah: The Concept of God in Islam and for his translations, particularly of Al-Muraja`at: A Shi`i-Sunni Dialogue and recently his three-volume translation of Nahjul-Balagha: The Path of Eloquence. These three volumes have been published in the United States, United Kingdom and Iraq. The Iraqi edition is in full color and both recently published editions in the U.S. and U.K. are also in full color. Authorhouse (www.authorhouse.com) has published some of his works, while Amazon (www.amazon.com) is marketing them globally. He presently has a list of other translations of his, which he intends to publish in the U.K. and U.S. These books are badly needed by the Islamic library, which lacks quality literature on the histories and biographies of Ahlul-Bayt, immediate family of the Prophet of Islam, with whom the vast majority of the Muslims are unfamiliar, let alone others.
