gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Memorials of Old Virginia Clerks: Arranged Alphabetically by Counties, With Complete Index of Names, and Dates of Service From 1634 to the Present Time (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Memorials of Old Virginia Clerks: Arranged Alphabetically by Counties, With Complete Index of Names, and Dates of Service From 1634 to the Present Time There will be found in this volume the names and dates of service, of more than eight hundred clerks, who have held office in every county in the State of Virginia, going back to the year 1634, when the colony of the Old Dominion was divided into eight counties or shires, then named respectively, Charles City, Elizabeth City, Henrico, Isle of Wight, James City, Northampton, Warwick and York. From these have been formed all the counties in the State at different times, which will appear in alphabetical order, each county showing the date of its formation, from what county or counties formed, and the names and dates of service of the clerks from the beginning, so far as they can now be procured. Owing to the fact that a considerable number of the clerk's offices and public records have been destroyed by fire and otherwise, some of these lists are necessarily defective; but a sufficient number have been obtained to make a valuable contribution to the early and later history of the State.
