A. Nudrat Unus : Muslim Students Association of the United States and Canada: A Glimpse of the Sixties before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Muslim Students Association of the United States and Canada: A Glimpse of the Sixties:

This booklet is designed to partially document the early stages of the Muslim Students Association of the United States and Canada (then popularly known as MSA). It is not intended to be a book on the MSAs history but rather to highlight some salient features of an extraordinary organization founded in 1963, which established a sure footing within a few years during the sixties. The individual documents in this booklet were part of a poster that was displayed in the History Gallery at the 51st Annual Convention of the Islamic Society of North America (ISNA) in Detroit in 2014.

About the AuthorA. Nudrat Unus has a Masters degree in zoology from Karachi University. She has founded or served on a number of projects at ISNA headquarters and All Dulles Area Muslim Society (ADAMS), including pre-school, youth programs, weekend school, zakah committee, womens group, and seniors group. She initiated and has managed ISNAs History Gallery Project since its first debut at ISNAs 50th Annual Convention. A long-term member of ISNA, she is researching the early history of the Muslim Students Association of the United States and Canada (MSA).
