Jonas Otterbeck, Jrgen Nielsen : Muslims in Western Europe (The New Edinburgh Islamic Surveys EUP)
before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Muslims in Western Europe (The New Edinburgh Islamic Surveys EUP):

This introduction to the story of Muslims in Western Europe describes their early history and outlines the causes and courses of modern Muslim immigration. It explains how Muslim communities have developed in individual countries, their origins, present-day ethnic composition, distribution and organisational patterns, and the political, legal and cultural contexts in which they exist are explored. There is also a comparative consideration of issues common to Muslims in all Western European countries including the role of the family, and the questions of worship, education and religious thought.

About the Author Jonas Otterbeck is Professor of Islamic Studies at Centre for Theology and Religious Studies, Lund University. Between 1998 and 2008, he held a position as Lecturer in International Migration and Ethnic Relations, Malm University. Jrgen Nielsen is an Honorary Professor at the University of Copenhagen, Denmark.
