Vol. 1 of 2 (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Researches Concerning the Laws, Theology, Learning, Commerce, Etc. Of Ancient and Modern India, Vol. 1 of 2 Independently of the information acquired by the Author, during a long residence in India, he has consulted every work possessing any claims to attention, that treated on the various literary and scientific subjects which it came within his design to notice. From these works both frequent and Copious quotations have been made; the Author deeming it preferable to state them in the words of their respective writers than to offer them in his own language in preface.
