INFORMATION: Ripley's Believe It Or Not: The Remarkable Revealed is the 4th title in this annual series., and is the biggest and best yet. It is full of incredible bizarre facts, stories, interviews, and features, all proudly displayed in a stunning bright new design. New features include: Collections - full-page features that showcase a themed collection of amazing images with captions. These include bizarre buildings, albino animals, competitive eating champions, and contortionists. Occasional full-page historical features that explore an aspect of the Ripley empire in its early days, when the great Robert Ripley's personal popularity was at its height. These include a feature on the millions of letters that Ripley received from the general public, and a feature on unusual uses for the many thousands of Ripley cartoons that have been published since the 1920s. In addition, fascinating black and white Ripley archive images are scattered throughout the book.
