From Oxford University Press : Seamless Boundaries: Lutfullah's Narrative beyond East and West before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Seamless Boundaries: Lutfullah's Narrative beyond East and West:

When Lutfullah, member of a distinguished Sufi family of Malwa, and a master of languages, visited England in 1844 in the company of Mir Jarar Ali Khan, son-in-law of the Nawab of Surat, he recorded his observations on various matters connected with the British government, culture, and society in what has come to be regarded as the first, and best, autobiography in English by an Indian. The volume will have a substantial introduction and annotations by Mushirul Hasan.
