The author correctly pinpoints 9/11 as the start of the time of the end. He correctly sees the connection between Matt 24 and Rev 6 and how the fulfillment of those passages began on 9/11. He and author Richard Perry are currently the writers that I know of who have written about this. If you are a serious student of Bible prophecy this book and Richard Perry's books are musts. Perry has a much more in-depth and detailed linking of 9/11 and the time of the end. But Fitzgerald's book is an important fellow witness. The first part of the book is mostly biographic. It's not absolutely necessary to read that part to benefit from the book although it does show the journey that led to his understanding about 9/11. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A must read for the Apostate Church in America. By David I am very thankful that I found this book by the author whose video bible production was used by God to foretell the 9/11 attack by Islamic jihadists on New York. A must read for those who have read The Harbinger. I couldn't put it down. Now, I must share the urgency of this prophetic warning and The Watchword Bible with lost loved ones. Thank you James Fitzgerald for sharing your book with me. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Biblically Factual Accurate. By Kindle Customer Good reading excellent reminder to the seasoned Christian as well as great teaching to folks not too familiar with the Scriptures. However, for me, there was a section, approximately book's middle, where I found reading redundant gone on a tangent of too much personal history which appeared irrelevant to the rest of the book.

In July 2000, God sent a watchman to Madison Square Garden in New York City with warning of an imminent surprise attack that would be a sign pointing to the endtimes. When this very thing happened fourteen months later on 9/11, it proved to be God's terrible catalyst to begin the end-times right before our eyes. The 9/11 Prophecy tells the remarkable testimony of the watchman who was sent to NYC at the Millennium. With amazing, irrefutable proof from scripture, history and providence, it shows how 9/11 set in motion two of the most critical end-time prophecies in the New Testament and how these specific prophecies will lead to America's fall before the rise of an Islamic Antichrist in this very generation.
