

(Download free ebook) The Carnival of Peace

The Carnival of Peace

Kumbh Teetham Haridwaram
*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

 Download

 Read Online

Model: Hard Bound 2012-01-01 Original language: English .0 x .0 x .0l, 6.38 #File Name: 8128836277324 pages | File size: 27.Mb

Kumbh Teetham Haridwaram : The Carnival of Peace before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Carnival of Peace:

About the book: the carnival of peace: kumbh teerthamharidwaram they gathered by millions and the number crossed 80 million! it was their candid attempt towards initiation of self-awakening and quest for peace and immortality at a place of complete transformation maha kumbh mela 2010-a festival of faith embellished with noises of all kinds mystifying all description-yet bequeathed a message of peace beating of gongs and drums, blaring of trumpets, conch shells blowing and bells ringing, musicians performing, troops of acrobats displaying super human skills and bursting of fire crackers off and on, palanquins of gold, silver and white gold carrying the royal renunciants greeted the eye of a traveller at this congregation of faith and peace what can be more pleasing and peaceful than the soothing effect of illuminated lamps floating down the Ganges stream in leaf boats loaded with floral petals Dr Radhika Nagrath recalls the spiritual caravan of peace activists, naga sadhus, tantriks, pilgrims, mystical walkers, wandering monks, miracle workers, roaming philosophers, natives of the land and foreigners at kumbh mela of 2010 in Haridwar in sharp contrast with other coffee table books which picture the scenes of royal chariots, rituals of sadhus with matted dreadlocks, kumbh teertham haridwaram gives some personal encounters of the author with sadhus and deliberates on how the fair acted as the prime and impeccable platform for peace lovers about the author: Dr Radhika Nagrath Dr Radhika Nagrath is a journalist, historian, researcher, lecturer, author and scholar of a high repute and has spent about 25 years living in the himalayan state of india,uttarakhand her spiritual temperament and socio cultural interestshave led her to write about the mega historical event in the formof a coffee table book she has been awarded and lauded for herunbiased journalistic skills by himalaya aur hindustan group andwomen in public sector (wips) forum she was also felicitated withganesh shankar v