Toltec Wisdom made easyBy Magda DreamI became interested in Toltec Philosophy while reading The Four Agreements by don Miguel Ruiz, several years ago.This is my 4Th "Idiot's" book. I like them because they explain any and every subject in easy to understand language - with clues and "Pay Attention Points" (my term) inside boxes, on the sides of pages.don Miguel wrote the forward so I feel it has been "OK-ed". There is Toltec history - where they lived, who they were, their beliefs and the philosophy they developed.To me, Indigenous Wisdom is true spirituality.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great OverviewBy Jolene Bennel originally read "The Three Agreements" from the library. I wanted to learn more about the Toltecs and scanned for options. This was a good choice for me. I don't know how it compares to other books on the same topic but if you are a beginner wanting a good overview of the subject this book by Sheri Rosenthal fits the bill. She even includes short "homework assignments" to help integrate the material into your personal life.

Open the mind to new possibilities ? Born out of the ancient Toltec society in the central valley of Mexico, this advanced philosophy incorporates the knowledge of science, art, and the spirit to form a perfect model of transcendence. Toltecs believed humans live in a world of dreams that can lead to self-love and respect?the keys to personal freedom. With this guide, readers can explore the knowledge of the Toltecs, taking charge of their lives and becoming fully aware for the first time. ? Foreword from don Miguel Ruiz, the master of Toltec wisdom and author of The Four Agreements ? Filled with practical tools that readers can employ immediately ? This is the perfect introduction to the subject ? Rosenthal is a Toltec Mentor trained by Ruiz himself

About the Author Sheri A. Rosenthal, DPM, is a Toltec Mentor trained by don Miguel Ruiz, author of The Four Agreements. In the early 2000s Sheri acted as executive director of Sixth Sun Foundation, a Toltec non-profit corporation where she designed and ran don Miguel's power journeys and co-taught his workshops. She has lectured and held workshops on the subjects covered in The Complete Idiots Guide to Toltec Wisdom, and was appointed a fellow of the Center of Spiritual Life at Eckard College in St. Petersburg, Florida.
