Dipankar Gupta : The Context of Ethnicity: Sikh Identity in a Comparative Perspective (Oxford India Paperbacks) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Context of Ethnicity: Sikh Identity in a Comparative Perspective (Oxford India Paperbacks):

Through a study of Sikh extremism in the Punjab, the author argues that ethnic identities are not fixed and permanent, but are dynamic and need to be sociologically contextualized in order to be properly understood.
