Charles Phillips, Michael Kerrigan, David Gould : The Eternal Cycle: Indian Myth (Myth and Mankind)
before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Eternal Cycle:
Indian Myth (Myth and Mankind):

From the formless mass of chaos appeared the Great Trinity of Hinduism: Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. But they were not invulnerable, and when their world was threatened by demons the gods turned not to their own power but to that of the Mother Goddess, in the fierce and vengeful form of Kali, the merciless destroyer. The Eternal Cycle recounts this and other tales form Hindu, Buddhist, and Jain mythology.
