Excerpt from The Fort Edward Book: Containing Some Historical Sketches With Illustrations, and Family Records The subject, Fort Edward, furnishes a theme sufficiently attractive for the pen of a ready writer. That the town has never had a local historian must be a subject of regret. That some day there will be written, and published, a history of Fort Edward that shall be worthy of the name, is the earnest hope of one who now gives to the world some of the humble gleanings of an unskilled stroller along a classic highway.
